Numb. 112.

The Pennſylvania Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Tueſday, December 29. to Tueſday, January 5. 1730-31.

IN our laſt we gave our Readers an Account of the Number of Burials in this City for a Year paſt, by comparing which with the Number of Burials of one Year in Boſton, Berlin, Colln, Amſterdam and London, (See our Gazette No. 64, 77, 78.) a pretty near Judgment may be made of the different Proportions of People in each City. In this Paper we exhibit an Account for one Year, of all the Veſſels entered and cleared, from and to what Places, in the Ports of Philadelphia, Amboy, New-York, Rhode-Iſland, Boſton, Salem and New-Hampſhire, by which the ingenious Reader may make ſome Judgment of the different Share each Colony poſſeſſes of the ſeveral Branches of Trade. At the End we have ſubjoined an Extract from a new Piece, entituled, The Trade and Navigation of Great Britain conſidered, &c. written by Mr. Joſhua Gee, and by him preſented within this 12 Month to the King, Queen, Prince, Lords of Trade, and every Member of Parliament; by which the Reader may be informed what Commodities the ſeveral Colonies Trade in.

N. B. Some Veſſels enter ſeveral Times in a Year.

The EXTRACT before mentioned.

Trade between England and Pennſylvania.] Pennſylvania within 40 Years has made wonderful Improvements; they have built a large and regular City; they have cleared great Tracts of Land, and raiſed very great Quantities of Wheat and other Proviſions; and they have, by Way of Jamaica, beat out a very great Trade for their Corn and Proviſions to the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies; and if this Trade be properly nurſed up, it may draw the Spaniſh Coaſt very much to depend on us for a Supply of Flower, Bisket, &c. which may be of great Advantage to us.

It is already attended with that good Conſequence, that it hath ſupplied them with Gold and Silver, which is frequently brought home by our trading Ships from thence, and has very much enlarged their Demands upon us for Broad-cloth, Kerſies, Druggets, Serges, Stuffs, and Manufactures of all Sorts.

They ſupply the Sugar Plantations with Pipe and Barrel-Staves, and other Lumber; with Flour, Bisket, Pork, &c. but this is not ſufficient for their Cloathing, and therefore they are forced to make ſomething by their own Labour and Induſtry to anſwer that End.

Trade between England, New-Jerſey and New-York.] The Provinces of New-Jerſey and New-York produce much the ſame with Pennſylvania, and their Traffick is much the ſame; we have what Money they can raiſe to buy our Manufactures for their Cloathing, and what they further want, they are forced to Manufacture for themſelves as the aforeſaid Colonies do.

Trade between England and New-England.] New-England takes from us all Sorts of Woollen Manufactures, Linen, Sail-cloth and Cordage for rigging their Ships, Haberdaſhery, &c. To raiſe Money to pay for what they take of us, they are forced to viſit the Spaniſh Coaſts, where they pick up any Commodity they can Trade for: They carry Lumber and Proviſions to the Sugar Plantations, exchange Proviſions for Logwood with the Logwood-Cutters at Campeachey. They ſend Pipe and Barrel-Staves, and Fiſh to Spain, Portugal, and the Streights. They ſend Pitch, Tar and Turpentine to England, with ſome Skins: But all thoſe Commodities fall ſhort of purchaſing their Cloathing in England; and therefore what other Neceſſaries they want, they are forced to Manufacture for themſelves. as the aforementioned Colonies.
